

HAMPTON, PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

TWO MINISTERS ARE INVITED TO HAMPTON

Rev. Read Called to St. John's and Rev. Hendershot Wanted by Church of Christ.

IT IS EXPECTED BOTH WILL ACCEPT

Former is Now in Idaho City, While the Latter Comes From Delta, O. Subjects to Be Heard in the Places of Worship Today—Program for Lenten Services.

Rev. Pembroke Walter Read, of Idaho City, Idaho, has been called to the assistant rectorship of St. John's Episcopal church. The selection of the assistant was left to Rev. Reverdy Estill, D. D., and it is expected that Mr. Read will accept.

Mr. Read, who is a Virginian by birth, went to Idaho from Portsmouth a few years ago. He is a young minister who has a promising future. He was educated in the Episcopal High School at Alexandria.

Dr. Estill in speaking of the selection said that he felt confident Mr. Read would prove a worthy successor to Rev. George Floyd Rogers, who is now in Covington, Va.

Call for Mr. Hendershot.

The congregation of the Church of Christ has been called to meet after the morning services today for the purpose of extending a call to a minister to succeed Rev. William B. Hendershot, of Delta, Ohio, be asked to come here and it is likely that the decision of the committee will meet the unanimous expression of the congregation.

Mr. Hendershot is 24 years old and was educated at Bethany College in West Virginia. He was born in West Virginia. Mr. Hendershot is said to be a young man of excellent training and his work at Delta has won him much favorable comment. It is thought that Mr. Hendershot will accept the call if it is given him. Although he has never visited Hampton the committee has many flattering recommendations of his character and work as defense struck the following names from the list: F. O. At Sunday at 9 a. m. E. V. Gray, W. V. Green and Shewmake. This left the person of the which is trying Davenport Wednesday—“Great Visions,” 8 p. m. his life as follows:
